Student Achievement Award

By: Teresa Rand
Director of Special Education

Students were recognized for their achievements for the 2008-2009 school year at the Springboro Board of Education meeting on May 26, 2009. This award is earned by a student from each of our school buildings who is enrolled in a special education program, and who shows positive achievement in Academics, Arts, Athletics, Community Service, Employment, Extracurricular Activity and/or Independent Living Skills.

The following students were recognized for their achievements.

- * Kyle Donaldson, from Jonathan Wright Elementary, was nominated by Mr. Greg Sandlin and Mrs. Diane Bishop for Academics.
- * Abby Suffridge, from Clearcreek Elementary, was nominated by Mrs. Tracy O'Rourke and Mrs. Becky Gleason for Academics.
- * Kasey Collins, from Dennis West Elementary, was nominated by Mrs. Sandy Wray and Mrs. Jennifer Kneeland-Janco for Academics.
- * Benjamin Dilley, from Dennis East Elementary, was nominated by Miss Tricia Winland and Ms. Jane Romick for Academics.
- * Noah Roark, from Lytle Five Points West Elementary, was nominated by Mrs. Christy Stacy for Independent Living Skills.
- * Grace Walters, from Lytle Five Points East Elementary, was nominated by Mrs. Sara Gerstner and Mrs. Bev Little for Academics.
- * Isabelle Pawelski, from Springboro Intermediate, was nominated by Mrs. Guadalupe Wilson and Mrs. Lisa Scheuermann for Academics and Independent Living Skills.

* Jacob Smith, from Springboro Junior High, was nominated by Mrs. Wendy Stapleton and Ms. Andrea Cook for Extracurricular.

* Brian Kempfer, from Springboro High School, was nominated by Mrs. Debra Kapolka and Mrs. Judy Hornsby for Academics and Extracurricular Activity.

Congratulations to everyone for their hard work and achievement this school year!
